- experience joy and wonder,
- make a difference in the world around them,
- take risks,
- forgive others,
- hope for the future.

Having trust in Jesus as our teacher, we guide each other to develop our God-given talents and let our lights shine.

Policy Statement

Religious Education (RE) has a high profile within the curriculum at St Petroc's and makes a significant contribution to preparing pupils for their future lives. Learning activities provide fully for the needs of all learners. We aim for children to be inspired by the subject and to develop a wide range of skills such as enquiry, analysis, interpretation, evaluation, and reflection. Christianity is taught as a living and diverse faith, focused on the teachings of Jesus and the Church, alongside a range of religions and worldviews. Religious Education encourages pupils to learn from different religions, beliefs, values and traditions while creating a safe space for them to explore their own beliefs and questions of meaning.

Legal Requirements

St Petroc's CE Primary School is a former Church of England Voluntary Aided School therefore the provision of RE must be in accordance with the Trust Deed of the School. The School Monitoring Council (SMC), in consultation with the Head of School, have decided, following advice from the diocese, to adopt and adapt the Cornwall Locally Agreed Syllabus and supplement this with material from a range of sources.

Religious Education is unique in the school curriculum in that it is neither a core subject nor a foundation subject but the 1988 Education Act states that 'Religious Education has equal standing in relation to core subjects of the National Curriculum in that it is compulsory for all registered pupils'.

Section 48 of the 2005 Education Act requires the inspection of religious education in schools which have a religious character. This is the Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools (SIAMS).

Managing the right to withdraw

Parents have a right by law to withdraw their children from the Religious Education curriculum. In this event, we will undertake responsibility for their supervision regarding health and safety. The school website advises parents to contact the school should they wish to withdraw their child from RE lessons. There will always be opportunity for parents to discuss the contents of the RE curriculum should they have concerns.

Aims of RE

- To enable pupils to know about and understand Christianity as a living faith that influences the lives of people worldwide and as the religion that has most shaped British culture and heritage
- To enable pupils to know about and understand other major world religions and world views, their impact on society, culture and the wider world, and to appreciate the diversity, continuity and change within those religions and world views
- To engage with challenging questions of meaning and purpose
- To contribute to the development of pupils' own spiritual/philosophical convictions, exploring and enriching their own beliefs and values
